

COMPLIMENTS & COMPLAINTS

Every Story Matters.

Help us to help you!

At Accordwest we pride ourselves on delivering the highest level of service possible for you and your family. Please help us to continually improve this service by providing us with feedback on your own personal experiences with our organisation.

Are we doing a good job?

Our staff and volunteers work tirelessly to make sure that the people receiving our services are safe, comfortable and happy. If you or your family have received outstanding service from Accordwest, please let us know so that we can acknowledge and reward our staff and volunteers. Kind words and compliments go a long way towards showing appreciation for a job well done.

Do we need to improve?

Of course we do! We know that we are not perfect and that there is always room for improvement. We also know that mistakes and accidents do occur, despite our best efforts and intentions. If you need an issue resolved at Accordwest, please don't be shy about coming forward. We are committed to doing everything possible to resolve the issue to your satisfaction.

Tell us what you think!

We welcome your compliments and complaints so that we can use them to improve our services and make them more effective for our clients. You have the right to provide feedback without fear of retribution, as well as the right to an advocate for any part of the feedback process. We will manage feedback confidentially, fairly and promptly.

How to tell us what you think

- Visit our website
- Complete the Program Evaluation form you receive when exiting the program
- Complete the annual Client Feedback Survey
- Complete the Compliments & Complaints form in your Client Admissions Package (or grab one off your support worker)
- Join your Client Reference Group
- Tell one of the members of your Client Reference Group
- Talk to your support worker, manager or the CEO
- Email us via feedback@accordwest.com.au
- Write to us at PO Box 6498, South Bunbury, WA, 6230.

When and where we tell you how to provide feedback

- During assessments, pre-admission discussions and admission discussions
- When you vacate a property
